Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer moving image file is one in a sequence of videos depicting the brutalisation of an animal for sexual purposes, and therefore promotes and supports acts of torture and the infliction of extreme violence and cruelty under s3(2)(f) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act). The classification of objectionable interferes with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications which promote and support matters under s3(2) of the FVPC Act are deemed to be objectionable.
